2023 Public Synopsis of Internal Affairs Complaints

Pursuant to NJ Attorney General Policy and Somerset County Prosecutors Office policy the following is a synopsis of all internal affairs complaints received against Bernards Township Police Officers in 2023.

There were eleven total internal affairs investigations against Bernards Township Police Officers for violations of rules and regulations, policies and procedures, and criminal violations.

At the conclusion of these investigations, nine investigations were completed. One criminal allegation was sustained and prosecuted, five other criminal allegations were administratively closed after the officer resigned his position. Three remaining investigations were unfounded or exonerated. Two investigations are still pending.
