Green Landscaping & Grounds

Green landscaping utilizes native vegetation to create biodiversity in areas previously covered with lawn. As well as enhancing the natural beauty of the area, other benefits are realized by this form of landscaping. These include better groundwater infiltration, reduced stormwater runoff, filtering of contaminants, reduced energy costs for fuel, fertilizer and watering, less air pollution (less mowing) and increased habitat for wildlife.

Greenscaping- Lawn Reduction
( Link )

Greenscaping- Water Conservation
( Link )