Quarantine Fatigue
A note from Health Officer, Lucy A. Forgione:

“Dear Residents,

While everyone is itching to go back to normal, the attached article is a “must read”. Keep in mind that the virus hasn’t changed and neither has the science behind it. This article is a conservative approach that will help assist in assessing levels of risk and making the best possible choice for you and your family to stay healthy and safe this summer.”

Elective Surgery Procedures
Governor Murphy signed Executive Order 145 that reversed the temporary ban that was placed on elective procedures — both medical and dental — two months ago, at the onset of the major health crisis brought on by the novel coronavirus. The new order set a restart for May 26 at 5 a.m., subject to the policies pending from the state Department of Health.
