2020 Internal Affairs Complaints April 1, 2021

Pursuant to NJ Attorney General Policy the Bernards Township Police Department is required to publish on the agency's public website a brief synopsis of all complaints where a fine or suspension of ten or more days was assessed to an agency member.

In 2020 there was one internal affairs complaint that resulted in a suspension of ten days or more. An officer was suspended for more than 10 days for violating department rules and regulations and policies and procedures.
